The representatives of the Missouri Paciffic were talking yesterday that they were looking out for their own interests, but they wanted it flustinetiy understood that they were not fightling the Orient.
They even went to the extent of producing that the Missouri Pacific would let the Orient run over their tracks through the morth part of the city and to the stockyards and all the joint tracks in that part of the city.

Mayor McLean, Councilman Charles Le
